Website terms of use

Version 1.0 | Last updated 29 September 2026

This is a translation of the French original, which governs in case of divergence.

These terms govern the use of avanserv.com by every visitor, a consumer included; they apply independently of the terms and conditions, which govern the services provided to professional customers.

The site's content

The site is provided for information. Avanserv SRL works to keep its content accurate and current, without guaranteeing it is free of error or complete. Content on the site is neither advice nor a contractual offer, except where it is expressly labelled as one.

Intellectual property

The site's content (text, graphics, logos, code) is protected by copyright and stays the property of Avanserv SRL or its licensors, as the legal notice already states. Reproducing or reusing it for a purpose other than personal viewing needs prior written agreement.

Links

Anyone may create a plain hyperlink to a page of the site, with no prior agreement, provided it does not mislead about the content's origin or suggest an endorsement by Avanserv SRL. Outbound links from the site are provided for the reader's convenience; Avanserv SRL does not answer for the content of the third-party sites they point to.

Availability

The site is available with no guarantee of uninterrupted access; it may be suspended for maintenance or in the event of an incident, with a reasonable effort to limit the interruption and to flag it where possible.

Prohibited uses

The following are prohibited on the site: automated, bulk extraction of its content, attempts at unauthorised access, and any use that disrupts how it works.

Forms

A project request or a waiting-list sign-up submitted through the site is handled as the privacy policy describes, which states what becomes of each submission.

Liability

To the extent the law allows it, Avanserv SRL's liability for the use of the site is limited to direct and foreseeable damage. Nothing in these terms excludes or limits Avanserv SRL's liability for fraud or gross negligence, for death or personal injury, nor where the law forbids it.

Governing law and jurisdiction

These terms are governed by Belgian law. A dispute falls to the courts of the judicial district of Namur, without prejudice to mandatory rules of jurisdiction.

Changes

Avanserv SRL may amend these terms. Each version is dated; the online version governs. Questions: info@avanserv.com.
